vs.

Christopher O. Belk, II

JUDGMENT

On March 6, 2012, Christopher O. Belk, II appeared before the Honorable Robert B. Jones, Jr., U.S. Magistrate Judge in the Eastern District of North Carolina, and pursuant to an earlier plea of guilty to Simple Possession of Marijuana, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 844(a), was sentenced to a 12-month term of probation.

From evidence presented at the revocation hearing on December 13, 2012, the court finds as a fact that Christopher O. Belk, II, who is appearing before the court with counsel, has violated the terms and conditions of the probation judgment as follows:

1. Criminal conduct.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the probation sentence heretofore granted be revoked, and the defendant is ordered committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons or its authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of five months.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the balance of the financial imposition originally imposed be due in full immediately.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk provide the U.S. Marshal a copy of this Judgment and same shall serve as the commitment herein.

This the 14th day of December, 2012.
